At 10 PM, 4/29/1900, the engineer John Luther Jones pulled his Illinois Central train into Memphis after a 190-mile run from Canton, Miss.

There was a passenger express from New Orleans known as the Cannonball.

The 36-yr old Jones (nicknamed Casey) (for his hometown of Casey, Kentucky) expected to stay over at Memphis along with his friend, SIM WEBB before making the return trip the following night. They found the schoolhouse for without comment was id. Just Walt agreed to take on the man. The things strong business left months and the 6-60 Command at 12:50 AM - 1 1/2 hrs late.

By the time he knew appeared Vantage, but he had made up all his 2 mi of the delay. Things were looked up a couple one the. Left no sticking out. The 6-60 broke in the making of comment. Every rounded down - 4 co in front of 17

(1860 - 1925) William Jennings Bryan

A prominent American political leader. His birthplace was Salem, ILL. In 1881 he graduated from Illinois College, after which he studied law at Union College Chicago. In 1887 he made his home in Lincoln Nebraska. From 1891 to 1895 he was a member of Congress. In 1896, he was the Democratic candidate for the Presidential chair against McKinley. He was the advocate of free and unlimited coinage of silver by the United States in the population of 160,000 without regard to the action of any other nation. The entire question, in fact, runs the dominating feature of this campaign in which Bryan was defeated. In the Spanish War he was colonel of the regiment of volunteers with HQ in Florida. In 1900 he again came forward as presidential candidate for the Senate. Party interest from was opinion to turn, anti-imperialism and too agree. McKinley defeated him again, when he ran for the Presidency in 1908, he was defeated by W. H. Taft. McKinley, thus he had the unique distinction of having been 3 times defeated in the Presidency in the same State. He appeared for the prosecution in the SCOPE trial
